house citations

Randell L. Makinson, Greene & Greene. Architecture as Fine Art. Salt Lake City & Santa Barbara: Peregrine Smith, Inc. @ 1977. Pp 234, 241, 242

p. 234: 2nd para. On 1920s homes completed by Greene brothers;

Henry completed ten- the Thomas Gould, Jr. house (1924) – etc.

p. 241: 3rd paragraph on the Gould house: includes b & w photo of front of house and original floor plan.* (See note below)

p 242: 1st 3 para on page - continues text from p. 241, w/special reference to the leaded glass window for dining room china cabinet

*A few minor changes were made in the plan prior to construction:

1. the entry to the left of living room fireplace into sun room was changed to a solid wall. On the sun room side, Henry Greene designed a built-in desk which occupies the space from sun room fireplace wall to window wall.

2. Bedroom No. 3 - a bathroom was placed in the small segment of the East sun room that had the door into the bedroom.

3. The screened porch adjacent to the kitchen was an enclosed entry porch/storage area as it remains today.

4. Upstairs bathroom: a door was added between bedroom # 4 and the bathroom, giving both bedrooms access to the bath.
